

WILSON VOICES HOPE FOR PEACE

Consecrates Second Inauguration As President With Message

EXECUTIVE RENEWS OATH

Voices His Determination That America Must Demonstrate
Her Claim to Freedom

WATCH FIREWORKS

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Woodrow Wilson with the major part of the world at war and America poised on its verge, consecrated his second inauguration as president of the United States today with a last message of hope for peace.

Standing in the shadows of the nation's capitol with his face turned toward the eastern war seared sky the president renewed his oath of allegiance to the constitution, praying to God that he might be given wisdom and prudence to do his duty in the true spirit of the American people.

Pictures Deep Wrongs

While trumpets blared and martial accompaniments rattled prophetically about him, the president pictured the deep wrongs the United States patiently had borne in the conflict of other people without wishing to wage or injure in return. Asserting that the tragedies of another continent had removed provincialism and made American citizens of the world and that the principles of this republic should be applied to a liberation of mankind, he resolutely voiced a determination that America standing firm in armed neutrality must demonstrate her claim to a minimum of right and freedom of action in world affairs.

No Time for Retrospect

Making no attempt to review the legislative record of the last four years, the president said this was no time for retrospect. The time was one to speak of thoughts and purposes for the immediate future. To be indifferent to the influence of the war upon America or independent of it he said was impossible and he was firm in the conviction that the part this country wished to play in the vital turmoil was the part of those "who mean to vindicate and fortify peace."

These were the dominant thoughts of the president as he addressed the cheering multitude in the broad plaza of the capitol grounds. In the assemblage before him American citizens of all nations had sung "America" with a mighty voice while waiting for his appearance on the inaugural stand. And in the procession which followed him to the white house and passed in review "a composite and cosmopolitan people" gave graphic evidence of loyalty and patriotism.

"We are Americans," flared from hymns borne by once aliens. "We are ready to fight and die for America," was the stirring message blazing from a standard waving over the heads of new American citizens from Poland. Men of many foreign ancestries held to the breeze as they marched past the chief executive other insignia of patriotic Americanism, and the words "America first" emblazoned from countless streamers aroused the throngs along Washington's broad thoroughfares to continual outbursts of patriotic fervor.

Course Triumphant

From the time the president left the white house until his return his course was triumphant. Sharing with him the plaudits was Mrs. Wilson, who accompanied him to the capitol, stood by his side on the inaugural stand as Chief Justice White administered the oath of office and joined with him in acknowledging the tributes and acclaim in the professional journey to the white house. It was the first time in history that the wife of a president had participated so prominently in inaugural ceremonies and gracing them also was Mrs. Marshall, wife of the vice-president who sat with her husband in the inaugural stand and rode behind him in the parade.

No less impressive than the inauguration of the president was the inauguration of the vice-president in the senate chamber, which the president participated. When members of the senate and house had been seated, the diplomats of foreign

FRUSTRATE PLOT TO BLOW UP MUNITIONS PLANTS

Authorities Arrest German in Hoboken

Announce Themselves as Convinced
Plans of Alleged Plotters Had to Do Entirely with Destroying War
Supplies and No Attack on President
Was Contemplated.

Hoboken, N. J., March 5.—With the arrest here today of Fritz Kolb, a German, the authorities expressed belief that they had frustrated a well developed plot to aid Germany by blowing up munition plants in this country engaged in turning out contracts for the entente allies. The said they found in Kolb's room two bombs which, according to rumors that had reached them, were to be sent to President Wilson. After a preliminary investigation, however, they announced themselves as convinced that the plans of the alleged plotters had to do entirely with destroying war supplies, and that no attack on the president's life was contemplated.

May Solve Other Explosions

The police also said they had come into possession of information which might help them in solving the Black Tom, N. J., explosion and the destruction of the Kingsland, N. J., plant of the Canadian Car & Foundry company in which large munition supplies for the entente allies were blown up. Four other bombs were questioned by the authorities tonight. Chief of police Hayes of this city said they were friends of Kolb but that he was convinced they knew nothing of the plot.

"We are following leads which may result in additional arrests at any time," Chief Hayes declared, "we are co-operating with the New York police. All of us have been working on this for several weeks."

Kolb was found in a small hotel, opposite the piers of the Hamburg-American Line. His room, it was asserted, bore the appearance of having been used as a laboratory. Besides the two bombs, the police said they found brass and copper tubing resembling that used in ships. The bombs were made of this material. There also were a flask of black powder, bottles containing gasoline, benzine and alcohol. Experts from the New York detective bureau said the distance powder was new to them but they believed it was similar to some used in Germany.

Bombs of a New Type

The bombs, the experts declared, were of a new type and had slow fuses. The explosive contents have not yet been examined. The bombs were wrapped in a shirt, which Kolb, the police declared, admitted was his.

Kolb denied he had anything to do with making the bombs but said according to the police that his room was used for that purpose by a man he knew only as Karl whom he met in a saloon. He declared he did not know the man's present whereabouts.

Kolb was born in Cologne, Germany, he said and came to this country shortly after the war began, working his way on a Standard Oil steamer. He made several trips between this country and Mexico, he said, but not recently. Various times, he added, he worked as a bar keeper and waiter and admitted he was a druggist and had sought a position as weigher in chemicals.

Kolb gave his age as thirty three.

He had lived at the hotel for five weeks.

Officers of the Canadian Car & Foundry company declared tonight there was a "likeness" between Kolb and a photograph of a former employee for whom they had been searching since the explosion at Kingsland, N. J.

Theodore Kemper, owner of a saloon in Newark, where Kolb was a bartender told the police that when the Kingsland explosion occurred Kolb was at work in the saloon. He said he recalled that when a party went to look at the wrecked plant, Kolb, also invited, evinced no interest and remained in Newark.

REPLIES TO CRITICS OF

SALONIKI EXPEDITION

LONDON, March 5.—Replying to Colonel Churchill and other critics of the Saloniki expedition including John Dillon who asserted Roumania had been forced into the war by England against her will and against the advice of General Sarrahl, the French commander, and Russian generals Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer intimated the government had no intention of withdrawing the troops from Saloniki. He said England could not act independently and had to consult her allies. If the expedition were withdrawn, Greece would be open and the whole Balkan peninsula would be in the hands of the entente's enemies.

No threats, he asserted, were used to induce Roumania to enter the war.

PENNSYLVANIA ROAD ISSUES STATEMENT

NEW YORK, March 5.—The statement of the Pennsylvania railroad company for 1916 issued today, shows an increase in operating revenue of $68,339,726 for the entire system over the previous year with an increase of $47,436,409 in railway operating expenses, leaving a net increase of $20,903,317 from railway operations.

Discussing in the report the general subject of rates, President Rea urged more adequate returns to meet the pressing demand for large terminals and more equipment. At the close of 1916 the road had 90,388 stockholders whose average holdings were 110 shares.

The company's project to build an extension from Toledo to Detroit is to be promptly undertaken, the report said because of the "unprecedented development of the district."

FLOOD SITUATION IN SOUTH IMPROVES

Clearing Weather Brings Relief
in Four States

Tennessee River at Chattanooga Continued to Spread Over Lowlands and Further Up It Had Flooded, Driving Many Persons From Their Homes.

Atlanta, Ga., March 5.—Clearing weather today brought relief from floods in Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina and Virginia, and improved the situation on the upper Tennessee river which went out of its banks yesterday.

At Chattanooga, the Tennessee continued to spread over lowlands and farther up it had flooded, driving many persons from their homes. Some were marooned at isolated points and a rescue steamer has been sent to their aid.

Landslides caused by washouts tied up some branch railroad lines. The Cumberland river at Nashville continued to rise tonight but the material damage was done as warehouses had been emptied and farmers in the nearby counties had had time to remove their stock.

In North Carolina, Virginia, Alabama and South Georgia no reports of any considerable property loss were received and with the water receding the worst of the flood was believed to be over.

Warnings Cause Apprehension.

Adelphi, Ky., March 5.—Flood warnings covering the whole valley caused some apprehension here today for the safety of many families in Tennessee along the middle reaches of the Tennessee river. Reports were that many persons, driven from their homes by high water due to previous rains and present melting snows were marooned at isolated points.

TRANSPORT BODY WITH FULL MILITARY HONORS

Coffin of Major Heiberg Draped With American Flag and Covered With Wreaths, One From Italian King.

Udine, Italy, March 5.—The body of Major Elvin R. Heiberg, the American military attaché who was killed by a fall from his horse on the Italian front, was transported yesterday from the hospital to the railroad station with full military honors.

The coffin was placed on a gun carriage which was draped with an American flag and covered with wreaths, noticeable among which was one from King Victor inscribed "to a distinguished American officer."

The train carrying the body will arrive in Rome today. A later report on the accident says that Major Heiberg was riding a high tempered horse belonging to Count Ceriana. The horse ran away but was mastered by its rider and brought back. Major Heiberg seemed smitten by a sudden illness when he started to dismount and fell to the ground. The restive horse kicked him on the head and he died two hours later without recovering consciousness.

SENATE DEMOCRATS TO CAUCUS TODAY

Wilson's Demand For Change in Senate Rules Fresh in Their Minds

MAY KEEP IN SESSION

Senate May Spend Summer in Capital if Caucus Decides to Support Cloture Rule

WOULD CAUSE A FIGHT

WASHINGTON, March 5.—With President Wilson's demand for a change in senate rules to make impossible in the future such a filibuster as the one by which a handful of members defeated the armed neutrality bill fresh in their minds, senate Democrats will caucus tomorrow on a program for the special session.

The session, called primarily to pass upon appointments to office, began formally today and will get down to business tomorrow. Senator Owen, who has been the chief proponent of a limited debate rule for many years, is prepared to bring the subject of cloture before the caucus and thirty-three senators have signed an agreement to support the rule he proposes.

May Remain in Session.

If the caucus decides to stand behind the proposal and make it the chief issue of the session the senate may spend the summer in Washington instead of disposing of its work in a few days as usual. Many senators who have participated in various fights in the past believe it would be more difficult to get the senate to agree to a limited debate rule than it would be to get a declaration of war against Germany or to pass the armed neutrality bill that died yesterday because the rule says a senator cannot be taken from the floor when he wishes to keep on talking.

There has been no caucus among opponents of cloture but Republicans in the cloak rooms today predicted that the minority party almost to a man would oppose such a rule and openly declared there would be Democrats to side with them.

The biggest present asset of those who wish a change in the rules is the president and the public opinion his statement denouncing the present rules is expected to arouse. Never before in the history of the many suggestions that have been made for such a change has a president openly aligned himself in his favor nor has public attention generally been called to what he considers a fault in its method of procedure.

Republicans Will Oppose Rule.

The Republicans aside from any personal views they may have about the president's statement and its intent to force a change in the present rules of the legislative branch, will oppose the proposed rule just as minorities always oppose it because unlimited debate is one of their most potent weapons.

Democrats who may oppose the change in rules remember that the time may come when they will find themselves again in the minority. It was a filibuster which Senator Gorman, a Democrat used many years ago to defeat a force bill on negro enfranchisement but that fact has never been forgotten.

Some senators do not regard a fight over the rules at this time as particularly opportune because they say there is no one in the senate who actually can lead a majority no matter what may be given him or whether the president gives him his backing.

If thirty or forty senators are opposed to a change, since the senate must operate under the rules that now exist until it can change them it would be able to talk about as long as the senate cares to stay in session invoking the very tactics which the president wants to bar in the future.

About the first business of the caucus tomorrow will be the selection of a majority leader. Senator Martin of Virginia is unopposed, the only other candidate talked of, Senator Walsh of Montana, having withdrawn a few weeks ago.

Taking of testimony will begin on Wednesday morning.

Governor Ferguson, it was stated tonight, would be represented by counsel.

CUBAN PRESIDENT WOULD SUSPEND GUARANTEES

Sends Message to Congress Requesting Authority

Executive Also Asks for Appropriation

Necessary to Quell the Rebelious Cuban Congress Passes Bill

After a Two Hour Session.

Havana, March 5.—President Menocal today sent a message to congress requesting authority to suspend the constitutional guarantees and asking for appropriations necessary to quell the rebellion. The bill was passed by congress after a two hour session.

The president's message expressed deep regret at the necessity to appeal to congress for the authority needed for the restoration of complete order which is "disturbed by enemies of legality."

"Two uprisings in the short period of ten years," said the message, "instigated by the same men, with the same desire for power and money shows the existence of anti-social factors who lack respect for all authority of law and are animated by a desire to secure by force the exercise of public power, as if our laws and independence did not offer as has been demonstrated by our tribunals means efficacious for the settlement of all just claims."

President Menocal expressed satisfaction over the failure of the calculations of the rebel leaders that the public would follow them blindly. The message declared Santiago soon would be in the hands of strong government forces who are advancing against the city. Before becoming a law the bill must pass the senate and be signed by the president.

Representative Gomez, arrested recently, has been released.

CHAIRMAN WILLCOX DEPLORES FILIBUSTER

NEW YORK, March 5.—William R. Willcox, chairman of the Republican national committee in a statement tonight on the senate filibuster that defeated the armed neutrality bill said:

DELAYS FURTHER ACTION IN GERMAN SITUATION

President's Legal Advisers To Decide Question

Attorney General Gregory and Secretary Lansing to Pass on Whether He Has Power to Arm American Merchantmen in Spite of Failure of Congress to Pass Resolution.

Washington, March 5.—Further action by President Wilson in the German situation was postponed today pending a decision by his legal advisers whether he has power to arm American merchantmen in spite of the failure of congress to pass a resolution conferring such authority.

The question was referred to Attorney General Gregory and Secretary Lansing and probably will be decided in time for consideration at tomorrow's cabinet meeting—the first to be held in the new administration.

A determination to arm the merchantmen if a legal way to do so can be found was generally apparent today.

The president has placed squarely before the senate the responsibility for changing its rules during the special session begun today so that filibustering by a small group of senators cannot prevent action by congress. In the meanwhile he is preparing to take steps as he can to meet the crisis and defend American rights.

While the arming of merchantmen is the step most considered it is pointed out that the president has the right to convoy American vessels. This course has been opposed by the navy department however, principally for strategic reasons.

Another step suggested is that the shipping board take over American Merchantmen and arm them as naval auxiliaries.

The president has been inclined to believe certain old statutes still in force might prevent him from furnishing guns to merchantmen but some of his advisers hold a broader and truer interpretation of these laws will show they have no application to the present situation.

Another name was added to the list of senators who signed a manifesto in the closing hours of the session declaring they favored the armed neutrality bill and would have voted for it if given the opportunity. Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island telegraphed to Senator Weeks asking that his name be affixed, making 76 signers.

The statement was issued by the minister who previously had denied he knew anything about the instructions after he had been shown the Berlin dispatch in which Dr. Zimmermann acknowledged sending the note to him.

REPEAL JOKER AND START INVESTIGATION

RALEIGH, N. C., March 5.—After discovery that a "joker" in an amendment to the statewide primary law nullified that law, which was enacted in 1915, the state senate and house tonight repealed the amendment and started an investigation. Several legislators who assisted in drawing up the amendment asserted that the joker had been placed in the bill after it had passed both houses.

A committee to conduct the investigation was named tonight and is expected to start work at once.

GIVE OUT LIST OF DEAD

OCEAN CITY, Md., March 5.—

Ten men from the coast cutter Yamacraw went to their death last night in a raging storm off this place in an effort to save the crew of the oil steamer Louisiana aground on a sand bar two miles out. Three life saving crews from Ocean City, North Beach and Isle of Wight stations had been to the Louisiana earlier to take off the crew but the captain said the vessel was in no immediate danger. Captain Ridgely of the Yamacraw, in answer to rockets, ordered his large boat launched and eight men under a quartermaster were sent out in a sea running twenty feet high. The life boat was swamped and the nine men pitched into the sea. Sailors on the Louisiana threw life belts out but the men were lost in the darkness and only their cries could be heard. The captain of the Louisiana flashed a wireless to Captain Ridgely that his men were drowning and the latter launched a second boat with four men. In this boat was the wireless operator, thus preventing the cutter from getting any more news from the stranded ship.

This boat had a terrible fight with the waves and one of the seamen a negro was thrown overboard. Fearing that if he were pulled in the boat would overturn, his comrades lashed him to the side and made their way to shore, where they were put to bed in the station. Not hearing from the two boats, Captain Ridgely ordered a third boat out. It contained a mess boy of 17 and a negro seaman. The sea jockey came out and the boat sank. William Hogart, the mess boy managed to get ashore. The negro was drowned. Every bit of clothing was torn from the boy by the waves. He remained naked in a hut all night and kept himself warm with an old mattress. Late tonight none of the bodies had been washed ashore.

Give Out List of Dead

Washington, March 5.—Ten members of the crew of the coast guard cutter Yamacraw lost their lives last night in going to the rescue of the stranded oil steamer Louisiana. The list of dead was given out today by the coastguard service as follows:

M. L. Kamban, quartermaster.
G. V. Jarvis, seaman.
R. L. Garish, ordinary seaman.
D. Fulcher, ordinary seaman.
M. L. Austin, ordinary seaman.
Thomas L. Midgett, ordinary seaman.
J. A. Dugger, boy, first class.
R. Simmons, ordinary seaman.

A still further attempt on the part of the party in control of the Government to invade the field of private business activity and assume functions which rightly belong entirely outside of Federal jurisdiction, is represented in the bill introduced by a Democratic member from California, appropriating $1,000,000 for the construction of a Government paper mill having a daily capacity of not less than fifty tons. The paper is to be for the use of the Government Printing Office in Washington, but it is stipulated that the mill shall be erected in one of the Pacific coast states, 3,000 miles from where its product will be used.

WHEN SILENCE IS GOLDEN.

Dr. Emil Hirsch of Chicago was asked for an expression of his opinion as to the filibuster in the senate which resulted in the killing of the armed ship bill and other administration measures. Dr. Hirsch's reply was that the present times are so perilous and international affairs so complicated that it is unwise now for men to express their opinions. Dr. Hirsch is usually not averse to letting the public know where he stands but he probably thought that the opinion that he would express would add somewhat to race feeling, and he was wise to withhold his words.

Assuming that to be his reason for silence, the same condition profitably applies to many present day discussions. But on the other hand, this is a time which demands that men have pronounced views and the courage to express them. Just so genuine patriotism is at the foundation of public and private utterances, little differences of opinion will not have a bad effect upon the public mind.

SUPPOSE IT HAD HAPPENED TO US?

(From the Cincinnati Times-Star)
Sir Norman Hill, secretary of the Liverpool Steamship Owners' Association estimates Great Britain's war losses in mercantile marine at 433 steam vessels, of more than 1,600 tons, with an aggregate registry (gross) of 1,744,000 tons. This, Sir Norman declares, amounts to 12 per cent of the total number of British ships, or 11 per cent of British merchant tonnage. The total loss of twenty-seven months of war averages less than one-half of 1 per cent per month.

If these figures are correct, and naturally they are as conservative as the facts will permit, Great Britain has lost more tonnage in twenty-seven months than was contained in the total American foreign-going tonnage in 1915. Statistics in June, 1915, credited the United States with possessing 1,349,846 tons of overseas shipping. In other words, Great Britain up to the time the estimate was made, had lost 249 more tons of overseas shipping than the United States owned, and still had about 14,000,000 tons left.

These figures indicate what the United States would be up against if she ever got into a real war on salt water. It would not be long before our relatively insignificant merchant marine was swept off the seas.

STONE DESERTS PRESIDENT

It seems the irony of fate, or at any rate the best kind of example of the uncertainty of political friendships, that Senator Stone of Missouri should have led in the fight on President Wilson's bill in the closing hours of congress. Senator Stone is chairman of the foreign relations committee of the senate and has been on terms of the greatest intimacy with the president. Time and again he has been the spokesman for the administration, and Missourians as well as citizens generally are at a loss to understand how the Missouri senator can justify the position he took, for by his action he not only embarrassed the president of the United States, but injured his country at a crucial time. His actions and the actions of those associated with him were ignoble.

Those who killed the important measures before congress and thus put the country in an unenviable light before the world cannot plead that they were acting because of the demand of individual conscience or opinion. They might have expressed their opinions and justified their position in voting against the measures, but conscience certainly did not require them to use filibuster tactics in defeating the will of the majority so forcibly expressed.

THE FILIBUSTER

As the result of a filibuster directed mainly by Senator La Follette, Progressive, and Senator Stone, Democrat, the sixty-fourth congress went out of existence Sunday noon without taking action upon the president's measure to permit the arming of American merchant ships. No action was taken on other important pending legislation, also because of this filibuster.

It is a sad commentary upon the rules of the U. S. senate that it is possible for a very few men to block the will and wishes of a great majority. The house had by an overwhelming vote approved the armed merchantmen bill and in the senate there was a very heavy majority in favor of the measure. Yet because a few men were opposed, the bill could not come to a vote and thus get upon the statute books.

This is a time for patriotism and not for politics. The unfortunate part of the proceeding is that it will not be understood abroad. If abroad they would know all the facts and could understand that a very few senators blocked the way, not half the harm would be done. But this is not so and in the eyes of the world there is a great division of public sentiment here and President Wilson does not have the backing of congress in his efforts to protect the commerce and good name of the U. S.

There is a strong sentiment in this country in favor of a special session of congress. A great many people believe that even the Republicans will be much stronger in the next congress than they have in the past, that President Wilson should be glad and willing to have congress in session for consultation and action during the trying days which are to come. This does not mean that the majority of citizens who hold this opinion believe the filibuster was right. On the contrary, it does mean that these citizens believe firmly that the president's measures should have been adopted, and that furthermore he should call the extra session.

Citizens of Illinois will note with pleasure that while Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman has been a frequent critic of the administration, vitriolic at times, yet in this instance he was ready to support the president and was not aligned with that small minority the filibustering non-patriotic group.

HIGH SCHOOL ATTENDANCE.

The educational bulletin issued by the department of public instruction in this state in the current issue calls attention to the remarkable fact that high school education has increased nearly 100% in the past ten years. The article says:

"One is continually astonished at the unusual growth in enrollment in the high school and upper grades of the common school system. A statistical table given elsewhere in this bulletin shows that in ten years the high school enrollment in Illinois has increased from 52,394 to 102,870, an increase of over 96 per cent. The enrollment in the elementary schools during that decade has increased only a little over 4 per cent. The most of this 4 per cent increase in the elementary schools has been in the upper grades. It will be an interesting study for some one to work out an explanation of why the enrollment in the lower grades of the common schools has become almost stationary, while that in the upper grades has increased so rapidly. In the year ending June 30, 1916, there was a marked increase in enrollment in every grade above the sixth.

"A certain class of public speakers and writers who have been criticizing the public school because of its failure to hold the children in the upper grades and who have been proposing some other form of education better calculated as they think to hold the interests of such children, will have to look to other states to secure any data on which to base their conclusions.

"An interesting question for some person with an investigating turn of mind would be to discover whether the decreasing size of the American family is the explanation of the more or less static condition of the enrollment in the elementary grades. How much of this condition can be explained by the fact that the parochial and private schools draw largely from the children in the elementary school grades."

'OPEN CONFESSION

I think Bill Shakespeare dry as dust; his books, untouched, stand on the shelf; and I could take my pen, I trust, and write much better junk myself. Long o'er his pages I perspired, and sickened 'neath the grievous strain; his noisy bombast makes me tired; his style obscure gives me a pain. But when I'm in the social swim, I do not dare to talk like this. The Avon bard! I worship him! To read him fills my soul with bliss! I hate the dismal, horrid daubs Old Masters painted long ago; they look to me like misfit jobs, the pigments spread with broom or hoe. At these old works I gaze and stare, and fail to find a pleasing thing—fat cherubs loafing here and there, and cornuted angels on the wing. I tell the truth here in my den, where no reneke can make me smart; but when I'm with my fellow men, I whoop it up for ancient Art. I'd like to meet a man so bold that he would say just what he thinks, hand out the truth, severe and cold, about the haloed, worshiped ginks. Also, the man has not been born, who dares to hoot the glibrick sage, who has the nerve to laugh to scorn the chromos of a bygone age.

GEO. SHARPE DIES AFTER LONG PERIOD OF ILLNESS

Kept Optimistic Spirit Thru Years—
Sudden Summons for George Reid—
Joseph Sides, of Chapin and
Mrs. Mary Condon of Murrayville
Dead—Other Deaths.

George A. Sharpe, aged 37 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Sharpe died at the family home 1415 West College avenue Monday night at 10:40 o'clock after an illness extending over a period of several years. Death resulted from a complication of diseases.

Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Sharpe and was born and reared in this city. He received his education in the public schools. For several years he was advertising manager for the Empire theater in Springfield. Later he went to St. Louis where he was employed. He also had charge of the concessions at the West Side ball park during the years Jacksonville was engaged in league baseball.

Several years ago his health failed and for the past four years he has been confined almost constantly to the house, tho he was able to get out at times and ride about the city. An affection of the heart made it impossible for him to indulge in any exercise or to exert himself.

Thru all his years of illness George Sharpe was the embodiment of optimism. He was always smiling and tho he knew that there was no hope for permanent recovery he was always cheerful. He had many callers during his illness and it was a pleasure to spend a few hours in his company for he never mentioned his ailments.

There were few men like George Sharpe. He often talked of the time when the end would come. Yet he was unafraid and we believe that when the final summons came he crossed the river of death with a smile. It is not given to human eyes to look into the future but in every human there is a belief that in the life to come there is no suffering. George Sharpe has passed on and we believe that his sufferings are over and that to him has come eternal peace and rest.

Besides his parents he is survived by one son, Freddie M. Sharpe of Newark, one brother, Chester M. Sharpe of this city and one sister, Mrs. Jessie Johnson of Dallas Texas. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Reid.

George W. Reid, one of the city's well known citizens died suddenly at his home, 402 North Church street, Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Reid had been in poor health for the past year and had been constantly under the care of his physician.

Deceased was the son of Stephen Holland and Martha Garratt Reid, and was born on a farm three miles north of the city, October 21, 1853. He attended the district schools and in 1875 the family removed to Jacksonville where he has since resided.

Mr. Reid was actively identified with the Prohibition party and was for several years chairman of the county central committee of the party. He was a member of Grace church, his father having been identified with that denomination as a local preacher. Mr. Reid was a man of strong convictions and was one, who was highly regarded in the community.

He was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers, Stephen H., Erich S. and Renda W. Reid. He is survived by two brothers, Dr. J. H. Garrett Reid of Myro, Okla., and E. J. Reid, residing north of the city and one sister, Miss Lydia C. Reid of this city with whom he made his home. He also leaves four nephews and one niece, Stephen H. and Lydia Roberts Reid of Joy Prairie, and Stephen H., George B. and Frank Reid of Shreveport, La.

Funeral services will be held from Grace church, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Burial will be in the family lot in Jacksonville cemetery.

Sides.

Joseph Sides, a well known resident of Chapin, died at Our Savior's hospital Sunday morning. Deceased was born in Nichols county, Kentucky, Sept. 20, 1836 and was at the time of death, 80 years, 5 months and 4 days old.

He was united in marriage in Kentucky in 1855 to Mrs. Nancy N. Marr, who preceded him in death in 1891. To this union ten children were born three of whom died in infancy and one son, James died in Springfield in 1904. There survive, Thomas Sides, Jefferson Sides and Mrs. Charles Hale of Springfield, Mrs. W. J. Hale of Meredosia, Henry G. Brownlow of Chapin and Elmer Sides of Chapin.

Mr. Sides followed the occupation of farming until compelled to retire on account of old age. He was a man upright in his dealings and commanded the respect of the community in which he lived.

The body was removed to the undertaking parlors of W. W. Gilman and prepared for burial and was taken to Chapin where the funeral was held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the residence of his son, Elmer Sides. The services were in charge of the Rev. W. A. Hadaway, pastor of Chapin Christian church. Music was furnished by Miss Hattie Bobbitt, Mrs. Fred Eller, W. P. McAdams and Wilbur Williams. The flowers were cared for by Mrs. Earl Fountain, Mrs. George Deterding and Mrs. Oran Hale.

Burial was in Bethel cemetery, the bearers being, H. O. Smith, James Guinane, James Hutches, W. O. Brewer, James Sherry and George Coulson.

Williams.

Mrs. Alma Williams, the wife of Herschel Williams, passed away Sunday at noon at her home north of Prentice, after an illness of eight days. Deceased, who was 23 years old, was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Means. The parents and the husband survive her as does one daughter, Louise, 5 years old. Deceased was a member of Hebron M. E. church.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

Around Arras and near Ghinchy the British troops have carried out successful raids against German positions, according to London. In the vicinity of Arras King George's men struck at two places and inflicted many casualties on the Germans, took 42 prisoners and captured a machine gun. Prisoners also were taken near Ghinchy. Near Boulogne the Germans endeavored to wrest from the British the positions captured Sunday but met with repulse.

The French official communication elsewhere than in the Bois Courieres the Germans were repulsed with heavy casualties in their attack Sunday. There has been considerable aerial activity along the line in France. London reports that Sunday six hostile machines were brought down, two within the British lines, and that eight others were forced to descend. It is admitted Germans forced down two British machines and that five others failed to return to their base. French airmen and an anti-aircraft gun accounted for three German airplanes Monday.

sign nations in their glittering official regalia were ushered into the chamber followed by the chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court in their sombre robes, officers of the army and navy and members of the cabinet. When the sergeant-at-arms of the senate herded the approach of the "president of the United States," instantly the crowd in the galleries and dignitaries on the senate floor rose to their feet and applauded as the president walked down the aisle to the seat in front of the vice-president's chair. If any bitterness had been caused by the president's statement to the public last night declaring that a "little group of wilful men" had made the country "helpless and contemptible" before the world, it was buried in the acclaim which welcomed his appearance in the presence of some of the men he had rebuked.

The spectacular fighting during the closing hours of congress still was a subject of international discussion however, spectators looked for the group of men denounced by the president. Only one attracted attention and that was Senator La Follette, leader of the filibuster who entered the chamber late and walked down the center aisle alone after the assembly had been seated.

Throongs Cheer President.
 After the administering of the oath to the vice-president, President Wilson with Mrs. Wilson at his side was escorted by the committee on arrangements to the inaugural stand. His appearance at the head of the red-carpeted aisle in the central door way of the capitol was the first signal for cheers from the waiting throngs outside.

With bared head the president approached the inaugural platform and bowed to the distinguished guests about him and to the great crowds in the plaza jammed in close to the stands.

Altho a brilliant sun had broken thru the blanket of lowering clouds which earlier had threatened to mar the day, a chilly wind swept over the assemblage and prompted the managers of the occasion to hasten the program. Long before the inaugural guests from the senate chamber had reached the platform, the president had taken the oath and begun his address. He began speaking at 12:45 o'clock and at 1:10 was seated in his carriage ready for the return at the head of the parade.

Never before was a president of president-elect so carefully guarded as today. Both to and from the white house the executive carriage was completely surrounded by secret service men on foot and mounted troops, while files of police rode near the curbs just inside the lines of New York National Guardsmen drawn up on either side of the broad avenue.

Arriving at the white house on returning from the inaugural ceremony and his official party tarried twenty minutes for refreshments before proceeding to the reviewing stand. There for more than two hours the chief executive acknowledged the salute of the participants in the pageant in his hour.

Tonight with his family he watched a display of fireworks over the Washington monument grounds which brought the inaugural ceremonies to a close.

As previously mentioned, Mrs. Partlett had been a resident of Jacksonville for thirteen years, having come here with her husband, Dr. A. T. Partlett, from Virden, Mrs. Partlett was born in Winchester, and there she spent the early days of her life. Later she was a student of Illinois Woman's college and graduated from that institution. It was while she was a student here that her parents became residents of Virden and from Jacksonville she went to that town. There her marriage to Dr. Partlett occurred and the home was established in Virden, where Dr. Partlett had an extensive practice. Following his retirement from active professional work Dr. and Mrs. Partlett came to this city thirteen years ago. They spent much of their time in travel in the west and south but because of the continued ill-health of Dr. Partlett had been continuously in Jacksonville for more than a year past.

Mrs. Partlett since her marriage has been a member of the Presbyterian church and when she became a resident of this city her membership was transferred to State Street church. Thru all the years Mrs. Partlett maintained an interest in the affairs of the church and lived in an earnest and faithful way. The spirit of optimism and a heart interest in her home and friends were characteristics which gave her an especially high place in the estimate of those who knew her most intimately.

From the home the funeral cortege moved to Diamond Grove cemetery, where Mrs. Partlett was laid to rest. Those in charge of the flowers were Mrs. J. W. Hargrove, Mrs. A. M. Masters, Mrs. E. W. Brown, Mrs. Frank J. Heintz, Mrs. W. T. Capps and Mrs. P. J. Waddell.

A large company of friends gathered Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Massey, 172 East Morton avenue, for the funeral services of George W. Massey. Rev. E. B. Landis, pastor of Westminster church, was in charge. The minister read passages from the Psalms and from the 14th chapter of John, some of which he said were favorite Scripture lessons of the deceased. Speaking briefly from verses from the Psalms Rev. Mr. Landis mentioned the comfort that there is in this book in the Bible. "The Psalm meet the conditions of every day life and in their portrayal of the emotions and the desires of those who lived long ago are faithful unto the present. But it is in the beauty of the promises found in the Psalms that the greatest comfort comes to aching hearts and it is these promises that throw so much of light into the pathway of life. And it is these passages that in some measure lift the curtain of the future and give emphasis to the promise of eternal life to those who walk uprightly."

A quartet consisting of Misses Annie Moore and Nellie Cunningham, Messrs. W. T. Brown and Hugh B. Smith sang "Rock of Ages" and "Shall We Gather at the River?" Because some non-resident members of the family have not reached the city the interment was deferred until today. The services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Diamond Grove cemetery. SCHOOL BOARD TO PREPARE FOR ELECTION

Date Fixed by Law is April 21st—Reports Present Interesting Facts—Minor Appointments Made.

The board of education met last evening in regular session. The runway or balcony in the gymnasium in the David Prince building was discussed and pronounced safe for all who could crowd on it. A pleasing report from the department of health was presented; the superintendent said the school buildings should be using a little more water in the closets and was instructed to consult with Commissioner Vasconcellos. A new cook, Mrs. W. I. Brown, had been secured for the open air school; Miss Martha Hall was employed as stenographer for the principals of the high school and David Prince school. Mrs. Brockman reported a good many very satisfactory visits by her to the schools. The annual election, Saturday, April 21st, was announced and steps taken to prepare for it.

The board met in regular session with all members present except Member Black who is out of the city. Member Duncan was called away professionally during the meeting.

Bills Ordered Paid

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Bills amounting to $1460.12 were read and ordered paid. The coal bill in this amount was for more than $500, and fire extinguishers more than $300. The payroll, $6956.41 was approved. Member Hopper reported the buildings now well supplied with fire extinguishers and things generally getting into shape for the visit of the state inspector. The Morton school is now well supplied with electric lights.

Member Duncan said an erroneous impression regarding the runway or balcony in the David Prince building gymnasium had gone abroad. It had been regarded by many as unsafe for use whereas, according to the scale of the architect it would bear up 300 pounds to the square foot of floor, much more weight than would be in a crowd of people. Supt. Percin said only a part of it was suited for balcony use at any rate and it was primarily intended as a passageway or runway between two parts of the building. The windows back of it supplied most of the ventilation for the apartment and if occupied people in it would insist on closing the windows. It was not used at the last gathering for the reasons stated but all should know that competent authority pronounced it perfectly safe for as many as would crowd on it at any time.

Member Hopper brought up the question of walking across school grounds, making unsightly paths through the grass and asked if there was any remedy. Other members said this place excelled in the matter of trespassing in that manner and the cases of the academy lot, Episcopal parsonage and church grounds and others were brought up but no action was taken.

May Improve Ventilating System

The president mentioned the gift of an extension table by himself to open air school and received the thanks of the body. The matter of the ventilating system of the high school building was brought up. The work is hardly satisfactory and Member Hopper had written the men who installed it and they replied it had been in service something like fifteen years which was a good life time without attention and to overhaul and place it in good condition would probably cost some $200 to $300. No action. The health department gave an interesting report from which a few items are culled. Visits to school: 52; to homes, 63; cases examined, 174; deficient, 96; sent to physicians, 71 to dentists, 57. There were ten operations for tonsils and adenoids; performed gratuitously by three specialists and anaesthetics administered by two physicians; hospitals had given use of operating rooms and it was understood all had been free. A generous spirit of co-operation with the department of health is gratifying. One pair of spectacles had been given a pupil needing them.

More Water Needed

The matter of water in the buildings was brought up. Member Percin said it had been asserted that the schools of the city used 50,000 gallons of water daily while the bills showed less than a third of that amount in ordinary times without special economy. Supt. Percin said the present manner of using water was unsatisfactory and he feared dangerous also. It was unpleasant enough for the janitors to go about once in several hours and flush closets and he feared the consequences. It was suggested that more water was now available and the superintendent was instructed to confer with Commissioner Vasconcellos and see if the normal use of water can be stood by the use of some more than is being used at present.

Superintendent Percin read a brief report of the gathering of superintendents which he attended at Kansas City and which appears elsewhere. Supt. Percin read a communication advising against making any contracts for paper supplies in view of the fact that prices are likely to come down soon and he was told to act as he thought best.

The resignation of Mrs. Boyd as cook at the open air school was announced and the employment of Mrs. W. I. Brown in her stead.

The employment of Miss Martha Hall as stenographer for the superintendents of the high school and David Prince school at $25.00 a month was announced.

Member Muehlhausen said complaints of janitor had been received regarding the late hours of some of the teachers in their rooms making his work of cleaning very late. It

MURRAYVILLE PEOPLE TO TALK ABOUT SCHOOL

Several Plans for Providing a New Building Will be Discussed

Dr. Hanna who is connected with the educational department of the state of Illinois, will be present at a meeting to be held in Waverly Tuesday evening, March 13. This meeting is for the purpose of discussing the most feasible plan for a school building at Murrayville. It will be possible to erect a township building, a consolidated school or one intended only for the people of the Murrayville school district. Dr. Hanna will be present for the purpose of explaining something about the workings of a consolidated school.

If such a school is built it would take the place of several schools in the vicinity of Murrayville and will provide both primary and high school instruction. If the school districts in that vicinity were to enter into the plan they would abolish the use of their own school buildings and send their pupils all to the central building at Murrayville. A provision of the law would make it obligatory upon the directors of the consolidated school to provide conveyances for the children from the country districts. This in schools now in operation is often accomplished by having the scholar living at the most distant point in each direction provide the conveyance for the children in that part of the territory and for this service some small salary is paid.

Erickson was riding a motorcycle in South Fayette street when apprehended. Chief Davis says this is only the beginning of the crusade against speeders and other violators of the traffic ordinance. Mason, alias "Spec" Henderson, for whom a warrant was issued Saturday charging him with keeping a ring belonging to Miss Allene Center, went to the station Monday and turned the ring over to Chief Davis. Henderson was not arrested.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS
AT KANSAS CITY MEET

Themes of General Educational Interest Discussed—Military Training and Plan To Inculcate Thrift Given Special Consideration.

At the meeting of the Board of Education held Monday night, Supt. Perrin made the following interesting report of the recent convention of school superintendents which he attended in Kansas City. The report was as follows:

To President and Members of the Board of Education,
The following is a brief report of the convention—Department of Superintendents, National Educational Association, which met last week at Kansas City, Missouri. I am listing the main points which were considered in a large way and which seemed to me to be of sufficient significance to receive the attention of every person interested in the welfare of public schools.

Represented at this convention were the United States Government, the State Departments of Education of practically every state in the union, city superintendents representing schools of from 1,000 to several millions population, supervisors, county superintendents, university and college teachers, normal school presidents and heads of departments, high school principals, principals and supervisors of elementary schools, technical, industrial, manual training and agricultural schools, school boards, educational press, unclassified persons interested in education and in parent-teacher association movements, educational and school supply houses. The accompanying bulletin will give some idea of the importance and significance attached to the coming together of this group of educators.

The physical side of public school training came in for a large amount of emphasis. A recent activity of

GIRLS! HAVE WAVY,
THICK, GLOSSY HAIR
FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty
In a Few Moments—Try This!

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive stuff robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fatten, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy, or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Adv.

"CASCARETS" FOR A
COLD, BAD BREATH
OR SICK HEADACHE

Best for Liver and Bowels, for Biliousness, Sour Stomach and Constipation

Get a 10-cent box now.
Furred tongue, bad cold, indigestion, yellow skin and miserable headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—Adv.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES
A COLD—NO QUININE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Ends Bad Colds or Grippe in a Few Hours

Relief comes instantly.
A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.—Adv.

the Departments of Health is revealing the great need for physical examination and corrective health measures. The establishment of medical and dental clinics was strongly advocated.

Military Training Discussed
Military training in the schools came in for its share of discussion. Dr. John Dill Robertson of Chicago, delivered an address on "Standards of Individual Health Among Children" in which he advocated strict inspection and follow up measures with regard to special senses of children and concluded his address by an appeal for universal military training through the entire public schools. Much of what he said, however, seemed to point to the corrective gymnastic side rather than the strictly military side. The resolution adopted by the convention recommends corrective physical training for all students in the public schools and universal military training for all boys between the ages of 20 and 24, such training to be directed under the auspices of the government.

One session was given over to the discussion of uniform standards and correlative factors in public school education. Standards of school house architecture, individual child health and methods of measuring standard school work were emphasized. This session very forcibly emphasized the present tendency toward a closer and more scientific study of school needs.

Variations Presented
The scope of education was presented from almost every angle. While there seemed to be a considerable difference of opinion as to what the legitimate scope is, yet, on the whole it seemed evident that the key-note was the adequate adaptation of the school to community needs. A number of variations in school organization were presented ranging from the establishment of a junior college under the control of the board, down to the advisability of including Free Kindergartens in the public schools. These discussions represented almost every degree of organization ranging from a practical education for the purposes of making a living to that of education for civic, moral and religious welfare. The close relationship between the work of public school education and child welfare agencies was admirably presented.

The necessity of training for universal thrift received considerable attention. The idea in general is not unlike that being used in cities of Illinois, a plan for which I hope to present some time in the near future with reference to the possibility of including it in the work of the Jacksonville public schools. A rather large number of correlative topics were presented. Among them was the idea of budget making for business administration. Brevity and definiteness seemed to be the keynote. I received a number of valuable suggestions along this line.

Cooperation Evident
The meetings of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations were extremely interesting and were largely attended by school officers as well as laymen. The large cooperation between these Associations and the public schools was very evident and the possibilities of beneficial cooperation were extremely prominent.

The close association with school officers, administrators and laymen, together with the admirable presentations, could not help but give anyone in attendance a more profound enthusiasm for the welfare of boys and girls and of the communities of which they are a part.

This report can in no way do the meeting justice, but I trust that it may at least bring before this Board some of the chief features which are being discussed in educational centers.

FIVE CHINESE KILLED

San Francisco, March 5.—Five Chinese were killed outright, two were fatally injured and three were wounded in Tong wars waged today in San Francisco, Oakland, Stockton and San Jose, Cal., and Seattle, Washington.

Guns of the six powerful Tongs, Hop Sing, Suey Sing and Big Ong Sing, arrayed against the fighters of the Suoy On, Sen Suey Ying and Bing Kong started the street battle here shortly after one o'clock a few minutes prior to the hour set for a peace conference. Many volleys were fired clearing the crooked streets of Chinatown of pedestrians almost instantly. One bystander was hit. Several arrests were made.

The death toll in San Jose and Stockton was one each with three wounded in the latter city, one probably fatally.

Two of the injured were said to have been bystanders.

No casualties occurred at Seattle. Nearly a dozen shots were exchanged there.

ORGANIST THURSDAY

KANSAS CITY, March 5.—The announcement was made today that a coroner's inquest would be held Thursday over the body of Edward Kreiser, noted church organist and musical composer who was shot by his wife, Mrs. Mary Kreiser, in their home Saturday.

Mrs. Kreiser drew comfort today from a visit to her cell by the Rev. George H. Coombs, pastor of the church where she taught a Sunday school class and where her husband was organist. They conversed at length with the eyes of other prisoners on them, most of them bowed their heads as the minister and Mrs. Kreiser prayed together for a moment.

"I knew of their troubles," Dr. Coombs said. "They both had talked to me about it."

Mrs. Kreiser smiled repeatedly today to the numerous visitors who followed each in quick succession to her cell.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR MISS KING

Poem Written by Deceased Years Ago Read—Burial at the Diamond Grove.

The funeral of the late Miss Mary D. King was conducted at the family residence yesterday morning by Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., in the presence of a large number of loving and sympathetic friends. Everything was simple and unostentatious as was the life and character of the departed one. The pastor read suitable portions of scripture and the following poem written years ago by Miss King.

Perchance our Lord has many ways to reach us;
Not the Great Book alone contains His thought;
He stretches out His patient arms to reach us;
In many ways His message sweet is brought.

As pictures gay to children oft are given,
The sweet fair earth, the wondrous sky, the sun,
The grand march of the stars across the heaven—
Each bears a message from our Gracious One.

Perchance the cold, dark clouds are like our sorrows;
Perchance the wind's sad plaint is like our ears.
Ah, me! dear Lord, how many sad tomorrows
Shall bring dark clouds before the sun appears?

But sometimes, when our earthly sun is sinking,
The clouds erewhile so grey and dark, become Transfigured, into glorious colors making
All bright the passage of the setting sun.

Grant us, dear Lord, when our short life is ending,
The pains and sorrows which perplexed its way,
Transfigured by Thy light, may shine till blending
Into the glories of the heavenly day.

Mrs. H. C. Woltman, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Andre and M. L. Robinson sang most beautifully "Adele With Me" and "Paradise." A great many beautiful flowers adorned the casket and were tenderly cared for by Mrs. Helen Jordan and Mrs. W. T. Wilson.

At the close of the services the remains were borne to their last resting place in Diamond Grove cemetery by Messrs. Walter Bellatti, H. W. English, William J. Kirby, Paul Moriarty, James Weir Elliott and Parker Dean.

At the grave the pastor read, by request of the deceased the following beautiful lines by John Ellerton. "Now the laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in thy gracious keeping
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

"There the tears on earth are dried;

There its hidden things are clear;
The work of earth is tried by
A juster Judge than here.
Father, in thy gracious keeping
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

"There the sinful souls that turn
To the cross their dying eyes,
All the love of Christ shall learn
At His feet in Paradise.
Father, in thy gracious keeping
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

"Earth to earth and dust to dust"
Calmly now the words we say;
Left behind, we wait in trust
For the Resurrection day.
Father, in thy gracious keeping
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

A Tribute.

More than fifty years ago a young man came to this city with scarcely any means and comparative unknown, to enter Illinois college, which he did. After leaving the institution to begin the work of life a very prominent gentleman of the city, a man whose rigid rule was applied to indorse for any one or go security in any way for anybody, came wholly voluntarily to this young man with a bond for $10,000 signed by himself and tendered him the position of treasurer and collector of the Jacksonville Gas Light & Coke company. The position was gladly taken and the business association thus formed ripened into a friendship and the young man became a frequent visitor at the hospitable home of his kind and noble benefactor, the late Joseph O. King. That was truly a model home, where a cross word was unknown and all seemed anxious for the happiness of each other. A member of that family was named Mary and was a sweet, winning person, possessing many graces and gentle ways that endeared her to every one. She was truly the pet of the household and every one seemed happiest when contributing to her comfort. Her fond father well nigh idolized her, while mother, brothers and sister were always attentive to her wants and slightest wish.

Many a pleasant evening the young man spent in that family enjoying the society of all and especially that of Mary. She was an accomplished musician, possessed a voice of rare quality and well trained. She was also a talented performer on the piano and many times entertained her friends with voice and instrument. She was truly one to esteem and admire and her society was always delightful to the friends of the family. Her gentle manners and kindly disposition, her fine accomplishments and tender and generous treatment of one a comparative stranger with no claims on the family will long be remembered with gratitude and pleasure.

It is also very grateful to know that everything possible that money and love could accomplish was bestowed on her as long as she lived and her life ever seemed happy even to the last. Kind and tender ones gave every possible attention and she gratefully received it and always seemed happy and cheerful and at the last sweetly fell asleep on earth to awake in the presence of Him, whom not having seen she had loved.

MRS. HUBBS DIES FROM RUPTURED BLOOD VESSEL

Well Known Resident of Sinclair Neighborhood Died Sunday Morning—Inquest Held.

Mrs. Harriet Wheeler Hubbs, wife of Newton Hubbs died suddenly at the family home in Sinclair Sunday morning at 6:45 o'clock. The fact that Mrs. Hubbs died before the arrival of a physician made it necessary to hold an inquest.

Coroner Rose was notified and went to Sinclair Sunday and empaneled a jury and held an inquest. The jury was composed of W. T. Richardson, foreman, John P. Newell, George Wankle, William Riley, Joseph Lewis and Samuel Allen. Seemed in Normal Health Saturday.

The testimony of the husband, Newton Hubbs and of Mrs. Allen, a neighbor, who was called was heard by the jury. After hearing the testimony the jury returned a verdict that death was caused by the rupture of a blood vessel due to hardening of the arteries from which she was known to have been suffering.

According to the testimony of Newton Hubbs, husband of the dead woman, she was apparently in the best of health Saturday night and retired about 10 o'clock. Mr. Hubbs said he went to bed about 11:30 o'clock and talked with his wife for awhile before going to sleep. Again Sunday morning he talked with her. She did not say anything either time about feeling badly or being sick. Shortly after talking to her Sunday morning she made a strange noise as the choking. He tried to arouse her but could not do so. He then summoned Mr. and Mrs. Allen who lived near and telephoned to Littery for Dr. O. H. Berry. When the neighbors and physician arrived Mrs. Hubbs was dead.

Born in Jacksonville. Harriet Wheeler was the daughter of George A. and Minnie Smith and was born in Jacksonville September 19, 1884. She was united in marriage in this city to Newton Hubbs, August 6, 1911. She is survived by her husband, her mother and four brothers and three sisters. They are: Walter J. Wheeler and George A. Wheeler of Sinclair, Philip G. Wheeler of Chicago, H. E. Wheeler, Helen Wheeler, Ruth Wheeler and Grace Wheeler of this city.

Mrs. Hubbs was a woman who won many friends by her kindly disposition. She was a member of Grace church and was consistent in her worship. Her sudden death will cause genuine sorrow to her many friends.

Funeral services will be held from the Grace church this morning at 10:30 o'clock, in charge of the Rev. George T. Wetzel. Burial will be in Diamond Grove cemetery. Friends who are unable to attend the funeral but who desire to view the remains may do so at the grave.

WOMEN WHO FADE EARLY

How often we hear the expression, "How she has faded!" or "Hasn't she grown old!" Her friends see it. Her husband sees it. She realizes it herself with a pang. Often she knows the reason, some female derangement has fastened itself upon her and makes it almost impossible for her to drag around from day to day. Such women should remember there is one tried and true remedy for their condition, and that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for more than forty years has been restoring women to health and happiness. Try it.—Adv.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant result from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two ever night just to keep right. Try them 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
